The University of Sheffield Library Presents
AN EXHIBITION CELEBRATING THE WORK OF

Jack & Maureen

At The Western Bank Library
Exhibition Gallery
Western Bank, Sheffield, S10 2TN

2nd June – 19th August 2012
AN EXHIBITION CELEBRATING THE SUCCESSFUL AND POPULAR WORK OF JACK ROSENTHAL AND MAUREEN LIPMAN

Jack Rosenthal emerged from the newly created Granada television studios in Manchester to become an award winning playwright and television screen writer. Maureen Lipman continues to have an enduring, successful and wide-ranging career which includes theatre, television, film, radio and print. Jack and Maureen met at Granada, married and shared their lives together for over thirty years.

The exhibition uses items from the Jack Rosenthal Drama Scripts Collection and the Maureen Lipman Papers, both held by the University of Sheffield Library’s Special Collections Department, to illustrate the development and diversity of their careers and the way in which shared family values came together to produce a creative partnership.

This exhibition has been curated by Andrew Moore, Exhibitions Curator, and Jacky Hodgson, Head of Special Collections, with the assistance of Jane Donaldson, NFA Archives Assistant. Reproduction of images for the exhibition is with the kind permission of the BBC Photo Library, ITV/Rex Features, Goldcrest Films Limited, The Royal National Theatre and Watford Palace Theatre.

For more information: Tel: 0114 222 7259/7231
Email: exhibitions@sheffield.ac.uk
www.shef.ac.uk/library/exhibition

Access: Please see the University Visitor pages www.sheffield.ac.uk/visitors

Disabled access and parking: Please see University web pages www.shef.ac.uk/library/libdocs/ml-rs1 or telephone the number above prior to visit.

Refreshments: There are a number of cafes and shops throughout the university campus www.shef.ac.uk/catering/university-outlets and other outlets available nearby. Please ask reception staff or phone the number above for more details.